

HOME HAPPENINGS

—Delightful fall weather.
—Next Tuesday is election day.
—Regular monthly meeting of Council next Monday night.
—A valuable work horse owned by C. H. Neff died the first of the week.
—Hog cholera has appeared in Canfield township and several farmers have lost valuable porkers.
—The Winodaghs Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Martin Kimerle on East Main street.
—The Canfield Junior football eleven defeated the North Jackson team last Saturday 8 to 4. The boys play in Petersburg Friday afternoon.
—Election returns will be received by telegraph in town hall next Tuesday night and the service will be as good as received anywhere.
—Charles Baker will continue to operate his automobile repair shop at W. J. Dickson's garage, spending as much time there as is necessary.
—Work is progressing rapidly on Homer Metzner's new residence on Lisbon street. It will not be completed, however, until next spring.
—It is not worth while to send items two or three weeks old to the Dispatch. They will not be printed. We want the news while it is news.
—On account of continued ill health C. E. Misner resigned as township clerk and on Wednesday was succeeded by W. J. Dickson, appointed by the township trustees.
—Much material is being hauled for the Boardman-Canfield township line road and every effort will be made to place the road in passable condition before winter sets in.
—G. Ed. Buzard has sold his grocery business in Columbiana to his partner, C. E. Shultz, and with his wife and son will soon go to Florida for the winter in the hope of benefiting his health.
—The adult classes of the Methodist Sunday school gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Galehouse, south of the village, Monday night and a most enjoyable social evening was spent.
—The Ellsworth lake is being drained so that the moss which covers a considerable area may be killed. The dam is also being raised and the water will cover a much greater expanse when it is again impounded.
—Through watchfulness at the local postoffice a number of people who sought to join an "endless chain" scheme promoted in Minneapolis by the so-called National Brokerage Exchange were saved their ten-cent pieces.
—On account of short pasture, due to much dry weather, many farmers in this locality have been forced to feed their live stock for two or three weeks. This means that winter stocks of feed will be cut down much earlier than usual.
—At the meeting of the members of the Mahoning county agricultural society in town hall Wednesday the following directors were elected to serve three years: A. C. Russell, Austintown; Ewing Gault, Jackson; J. S. Harding, Ellsworth; E. G. Moff, Beaver.
—Several car loads of coal have been sent to Youngstown by local dealers the last week. City dealers could not furnish the black diamonds so Canfield dealers responded to the cry of those distressed by reason of having empty coal cellars and winter starting them in the face.
—The rabbit season opened Wednesday and many local sportsmen were afield. Rabbits are plenty and many were slaughtered Wednesday and Thursday. Bunny stands a good chance of being exterminated this season which runs to the first of the year.

—Six persons, among them Assistant Prosecutor Robert J. Nicholson and his family, had a narrow escape from serious injury, when an automobile plowed into the side of the automobile in which they were driving at dusk Friday evening near Canfield. As it was, Miss Belle Henderson, deputy clerk of probate court, who was one of the party, was thrown into a ditch beside the road. However, the Nicholson car in which she was riding was going so slowly at the time that she escaped with but slight injuries. Mr. Nicholson was passing a wagon going in his own direction, and consequently was driving close to the side of the road, when another automobile driven by John A. Ewing of Knaufville hove in sight from the crossroads ahead, and turning toward the oncoming automobile and wagon, crashed broadside with the former, tearing the guards of both machines and seriously damaging them. In the general jolting, Miss Henderson, who with Mrs. Nicholson and the latter's mother and Baby Nicholson, composed the party, was thrown out. All escaped with no more injury than a shaking up, the Miss Henderson was also bruised. Mr. Ewing escaped uninjured.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATION

In Canfield Attracted a Great Crowd and Fun Ran Riot.

Rain Tuesday night greatly interfered with the Halloween carnival but a large number of people refused to have their ardor dampened and for several hours Broad street was thronged with merry-makers. The masqueraders got a lot of fun out of throwing confetti, and jostling and jostling their fellows. The parade at 8:30 was great and the youngsters especially gave evidence of having the time of their lives. The procession moved to the square where the competitors for prizes passed before the judges who in several cases had a hard time reaching decisions so clever were the costumes. Prizes were awarded as follows:
Best masked boy under 14, Edwin Dyle second, Clarence Blott.
Best masked girl under 14, Thalia Hawkins; second, Lenore Johnston.
Best masked man, W. C. Wilson; second, Leonard Renkenberger.
Best masked lady, Mrs. C. H. Neff; second, Jessie McClane.
Best masked couple, man, Hazel Schrader, lady, Grace Carroll; second, man, Marion Brown, lady, Mrs. Emma Mathews.

Tallest appearing person, Miss Ruth Burger; second, Frank Miller.
Best appearing person, Charles Smith; second, Foster Cox.
Best window display, Charles Credco; second, R. J. Metzler.

Refreshments were served on the first floor of town hall while a masked ball was danced on the second floor. Funds so raised will be used to improve the village park.

COUNTY INFIRMARY SENSATION

A sensation was created at the county infirmary, northwest of the village, last Friday afternoon when Miss Marie Higgins, a young woman, was found by an inmate wandering aimlessly about a corridor. She presented a horrible spectacle, being scantily clad, emaciated and blind. The story she told was that Joe Serak, a foreigner inmate who had been repairing for inmates in the basement of the building, had held her captive in a cubbyhole near where he worked for 10 months, feeding her on scraps of bread and potatoes and abusing her in a most shameful manner. She was arrested and taken to Youngstown. He admitted that the woman had occupied the small, dirty quarters for the time she claimed but denied he had held her a captive, claiming she had remained with him of her own accord. Serak is now in county jail in default of $1000 bail. The woman's real life in Youngstown and her people live in a wretched tenement and are of feeble mind. The county commissioners on Thursday started a searching investigation of the matter and it is expected all the facts in the case will be brought out.

FIRE DAMAGED KENDIG HOME

Fire Thursday forenoon destroyed the upper portion of Dr. J. M. Kendig's residence on West Main street. The blaze started in the attic from a defective chimney and had gained great headway before being detected. The volunteer fire department and citizens promptly responded to the alarm and by dint of hard work the fire was confined to the attic, but the entire top of the main structure was burned off. Meantime most of the contents was removed. Damage will amount to at least $1,000 which is partially covered by insurance. Dr. Kendig desires through the Dispatch to thank the fire department and others for the valiant service rendered in saving his home.

David, seven-year-old son of Judge and Mrs. A. R. Calvin, was so badly injured Tuesday morning when he fell from a school van and under the wheels between school and Boardman that death resulted a few hours later in the Youngstown city hospital. The following statement regarding the state examiner's report with reference to Probate Judge John W. Davis has been made voluntarily by prominent members of the Mahoning county bar regarding the same.
"We, the undersigned, members of the Mahoning County Bar, hereby certify that we have examined the report of the state examiner as to Probate Judge Davis in his office as probate judge, and the bank books in which he kept records of all money, either belonging to the county or as trust funds or in appropriation proceedings or otherwise, that came into his possession, and find that all of said money was deposited in various banks in the name of John W.
